

I have been a DSL customer of Sonic in Santa Rosa Calif. since the inception of Pacific Bell handling DSL. I very much appreciate the fact that I deal with a small independent company that gives me answers immediatly. I would be very disappointed if I had to deal with a very large company such as Bell South as the beauracracy that is involved with dealing with the larger customer would hinder my business and personal dealings.